"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts." — Zechariah 4:6

Why These Habits Matter

- 1 Morning thanksgiving (5 min)
Begin the day with gratitude. Thanksgiving is your spiritual key — it activates God's presence, secures His protection, and multiplies His provision. The devil hates your praise.
- 2 Anoint myself / my home with oil
Anointing oil breaks the yoke. Apply it in faith over yourself and your home as a point of contact for the Holy Ghost's power.
- 3 Plead the Blood of Jesus
Cover your life, family, and finances under the blood. We overcome by the blood of the Lamb (Rev 12:11); without its shedding there is no remission (Heb 9:22).
- 4 Read 1 chapter of scripture
The Word is the sword of the Spirit. Leviathan hinders focus and reading — press in daily so the Word brings growth and direction.
- 5 Declare today's confession out loud
Renunciation is verbal: speak your declarations aloud. Let the enemy hear your faith and your victory in the name of Jesus.
- 6 Renounce any spirit that troubled me yesterday
Diagnose what attacked you — pride, anger, twisting, rejection — and verbally separate from it. Your understanding is your first open door to deliverance.
- 7 Pray for spouse / family / children
Leviathan targets marriages and households with twisting and division. Cover your loved ones and intercede for any bound by this spirit.
- 8 Forgive anyone who hurt me
Unforgiveness gives the enemy legal ground (Matt 6:14–15). Release every offense so no door stays open against your deliverance.
- 9 Journal dreams from last night
Record dreams and visions honestly. Serpent imagery and dream attacks are signs of this spirit — bring them into the light and pray over them.
- 10 Evening communion or thanksgiving
Close the day discerning the body and blood of Christ, or in thanksgiving. End covered, grateful, and at peace.
